

Jack Pashley

Computer Science and Philosophy Student

Quick, adaptive, and curious learner. Excel in overcoming challenging circumstances and communicating complex ideas. Seeking the perfect balance between pragmatism and idealism in all endeavours.

✉ jack.t.pashley@gmail.com

📍 Brisbane, Australia

🌐 linkedin.com/in/jackpashley

🐙 github.com/jtpashley

📞 +61413733931

🌐 jpashley.com

🐦 @yojpy

📖 stackoverflow.com/users/10875120/shapley

EDUCATION

Bachelor of Computer Science / Bachelor of Arts

University of Queensland

02/2019 – Present

Major

- Computer Science & Philosophy

PERSONAL PROJECTS

Techno Sapiens Symposium (10/2018) ↗

- Techno Sapiens was an academic event sponsored by the University of Queensland. I served on the Symposium Program Committee. My skill in interdisciplinary thinking served me well in this position.

WORK EXPERIENCE

Senior Food Service Team Member

Collins Foods

10/2016 – Present

Fast Food Company

Achievements/Tasks

- Supervising Team Members
- Ensuring consistent food quality
- Training Team Members

Contact: Mr Harry Jahnke (Shift Supervisor) – 0434632677

SKILLS

Python

Critical Thinking

Mathematical Reasoning

Effective Communication

Interdisciplinary Thinking

ACHIEVEMENTS

Men of Word - Winner of the senior division (05/2017) ↗

Submitted a story titled 'Coming Home' which won first place in the senior division. You can find a copy of the short story on the attached webpage.

CERTIFICATES

Understanding Economic Policymaking - IE Business School (Coursera) (12/2018 – Present)

Learning to apply Economic Principles such that I have a greater critical understanding of current events.

Certificate II in Information, Digital Media and Technology (01/2015 – 11/2015)

Learned to operate effectively in an IT business environment.

Interdisciplinary Thinking (HUMN1100) (02/2018 – 06/2018)

Learned how to be a philosophically minded scientist. The course granted me a greater appreciation of other disciplines and other mindsets.

INTERESTS

Artificial Intelligence

Cyber-Security

Philosophy of Science

Philosophical Pragmatism